

BERENBERG ENERGY OUTLOOK 2020 FORUM

BERENBERG
PARTNERSHIP SINCE 1590

We are delighted to welcome you to attend the Berenberg Energy Outlook 2020 Forum taking place on Wednesday 15 January at Haberdashers' Hall. We hope you can join us at 12pm starting with a buffet lunch followed by a series of keynote presentations hosted by the following speakers:

James Davis – Director of Short-Term Global Oil Service & Head of Upstream Oil, FGE London

James Davis leads FGE's Short-Term service and crude oil production forecasting. He also covers crude oil price differentials analysis and regularly provides input into FGE's short term market research reports. Since joining FGE in 2013, James has upgraded the group's supply-side modelling capabilities providing detailed field-by-field production profiles, which forms an integral part of the group's short and long term research. James has a M.Eng in Civil Engineering from the University of Bristol. Prior to this, he was employed as a corporate finance analyst in the upstream oil and gas sector, working with small to mid-cap E&P companies.

Steve Sawyer – Director of Refining, FGE London

Steve Sawyer has over 35 years of experience in the downstream, strategic planning, commercial optimisation, operational and analytical roles and has worked for FGE since 2012, following five years with Petroplus as Manager, Production Planning & Economics at the Coryton refinery in the UK. Prior to this, Steve worked for BP in a number of areas including their central Economics team, the London trading office, the Global Refining Strategy team and finally as Manager for Bitumen Global Manufacturing & Supply Optimisation. This followed several years working for Mobil in various roles in the European downstream, including, Systems Manager, Business Plan Manager, Project Manager (FCC Cat Cooler) at Coryton and a variety of other positions including process engineer, operations supervisor, planning, scheduling and analytical roles. Steve has a BSc (Hons) in Chemical Engineering from Birmingham University in the UK.
