Hamburg. For the second time in succession, the Berenberg private bank gained third place in the overall rankings for Germany in the fifteenth "Euromoney Private Banking Survey" by the well-known business magazine of the same name.

"We are proud to have been able to repeat last year's very good placing," said Henning Gebhardt, Manager of Wealth and Asset Management at Berenberg. "As an owner-managed private bank with a company tradition going back 428 years, we have always adapted our business model to the needs of our clients. Berenberg is synonymous for in-depth share analysis, a long-term investment horizon, rigorous risk management and marked client orientation."

"Euromoney" analysed 2,395 data sets from 634 financial institutions in 66 countries for the survey.
