

Private Banker International Awards:
Berenberg wins award as
Germany's best private bank

Hamburg. Private bank Berenberg has won the title of Germany's best private bank (Outstanding Private Bank Germany – Domestic Players) at the Private Banker International Awards 2018. The prize for the best bank for ultra high net worth individuals (Outstanding UHNW Offering in Germany) also went to Germany's oldest private bank.

“This award is confirmation of the path we have taken, which is to place customer value at the heart of what we do and offer innovative, customised solutions”, says Dr. Hans-Walter Peters, Spokesman of the Managing Partners of Berenberg.

A jury of external experts and editors of the Private Banker magazine announced winners in eight different categories, and Berenberg was the only bank to take home two trophies. Ronan McCaughey from Private Banker International says: “The award winners this year offer a comprehensive range of solutions, have clearly defined strategies and are deeply embedded in the German market. With their strong financial performance, innovative digital tools and a holistic approach to servicing clients, these players are shaping the future of the private banking and wealth management sector in Germany.”
