

BERENBERG

INVITATION

BERENBERG EUROPEAN CONFERENCE 2024
MANHATTAN

The background of the entire image is a photograph of the Lotte New York Palace Hotel. The building is a grand, multi-story structure with a dark stone facade. It features numerous arched windows, some of which are small and set high in the upper floors, while others are larger and arranged in rows. The entrance is centrally located and features a large, ornate archway. The building is flanked by lush green trees, and the overall scene is captured in a slightly dim, atmospheric light, possibly during the 'blue hour' or with a dark overlay for better text visibility.
