

TWELFTH GERMAN CORPORATE CONFERENCE

Monday 18 – Wednesday 20 September 2023

We invite you to join us for the Twelfth German Corporate Conference, in which we look forward to delivering a full and comprehensive programme, bringing together the most important companies listed on the German DAX, MDAX, SDAX and TecDAX to present their corporate strategy, current trends and challenges.

Running in parallel with the main presentations, companies will be hosting one-on-one and small group meetings.

Please review our current list of participating companies and visit the conference website to register. We encourage you to register by Monday 21 August.

We look forward to you joining the conference in September.
