Berenberg appoints Gunnar Regier to its Extended Management Board

Hamburg. With Gunnar Regier, Berenberg is gaining an experienced capital markets expert. He will join the Extended Management Board on 1 January 2027. Subject to successful completion of the regulatory approval process, he is expected to join the Management Board in the course of 2027.

Gunnar Regier, 56, joins Berenberg after 28 years at J.P. Morgan. At the major US bank, he currently serves as Managing Director, where he is responsible for relationships with the executive boards of its key German clients. Previously, as a member of J.P. Morgan AG's (today J.P. Morgan SE) Executive Board, he headed the Markets division. In this role, his responsibilities included the regulatory and organisational restructuring of the bank in the wake of Brexit.

"I have known Gunnar Regier for many years, including from our time serving together on a supervisory board," says Dr Hans-Walter Peters, Special Representative vested with Management Authority and Shareholder of Berenberg. "He is highly client-focused and brings extensive experience in the capital markets business. He will lead our Investment Bank and will be responsible for it at Management Board level in the future."

"I have known Berenberg for a long time, both as a partner and as a competitor. I have great respect for the way the bank has established itself in Germany and internationally over the past decades," says Regier. "Leaving one of the world's largest banks after so many years is a major step. I am taking it with complete conviction. I am attracted by the company's balanced business model, its entrepreneurial opportunities and the prospect of creating long-term value together with our clients."
